

10 Things to Know About a Numerologist

1. JOB: Helping people to understand themselves and clearly see a time table as to when events and challenges will unfold for them.
2. EDUCATION: Self taught. There was no Harry Potter School when I was younger.
3. DUTIES: To be honest and not pander to clients.
4. THE HARDEST PART OF THE JOB: My job is easy for me.
5. REWARDS: People return to tell me that my predictions were spot on. It is gratifying for me to watch guilt melt away and to see people become empowered and get their lives on track.
6. WHAT PEOPLE DO NOT UNDERSTAND ABOUT ME: I do not have any special powers. People have a hard time accepting that I am getting all my information by reading numbers.
7. WHAT CHANGES COULD I HAVE MADE TO MY CAREER? I wish I had met Paula Howard sooner as she has been a tremendous help to getting my numerology message into the publishing market.

8. WHAT SHOULD EVERY WRITER KNOW ABOUT ME AND MY WORK? I am here to promote number literacy. Number illiteracy is debilitating to our entire culture.

9. TEACH A CHILD TO READ NUMBERS AND HIS OR HER LIFE WILL EVOLVE QUICKLY AND DRAMATICALLY!
